INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE EXCHANGE OF INTERCOLONIAL MONEY ORDERS.—The Post Office of Hongkong issues Money Orders on the Empire of Japan, the Straits Settlements, Queensland, South Australia, and the Straits Settlements, Australia.

Orders may also be obtained from the Post Office, Shanghai, on all days except Japan.

The exchange of Local Money (Long-king and Shanghai coin) is, subject to the rates laid down in the following graph.

Commission to be charged on Orders named above is follows:

not exceeding £5 or $25... ..
£5 to £10, or $25 to $50.....
Order must exceed £10 or $50.....
than two such Orders be issued, in favour of the same person, by mail.

Orders not exceeding $50 may be

Stamps, subject to a charge of cashings them.

PRIVILEGES AS TO 'SOLDIERS' AND LETTERS.

Privileges in H.M. Army or Nationed Officers,* Army School of Artillery (or First Class) or any may send half-ounce letters to the Kingdom via Brindisi or via Naples of four cents (tropence) each repaid either in Imperial or in pounds.

The same*privileges apply to letters to the Privates and Non-commissioned officers.

Letters must not exceed half a sheet of paper. Letters to the ends open. Letters must be signed by the Officer, with name of regiment.

with name of regiment, ship, & in full.

Serjeants and Sailors have no power to book or papers, nor can they use Imperial Stamps.

Warrant Officers, viz.,—Assistant Surgeon, Boatwain, or Carpenter.

Copies of letters are received at the barracks, sealed, that is to say, the seal with sealing wax, but there is no seal.

Mention of boxholders is called for, of carefully sealing such boxes with a recognisable seal, and of sending them in receipt with them. The omission of these particulars is precaution leaves a doubt as to the contents of the box ever reaching the office; the omission of the formal part of them might not have been for the sake of the Postage Stamp.

FOR THE UNITED STATES BY SHIP.

It is desired to forward letters by a sailing ship which is carrying a mail, it is only necessary to insert the ordinary way, the name of the ship, and prepaid postage as usual. This Office therefore, upon obtaining notice of departure, will forward the correspondence, if the letters be posted if possible before the date fixed for sale.

STAMP OFFICE.

The Office being now provided with Books of Receipts, Rent Colliery, can be stamped beforehand as Cheque Books. Loose stamps also be stamped if required.

Various means of remitting sums to or from this Colony and other parts of China, the Postmasters and others are allowed (but not required) Hongkong Postage Stamps of various denominations.
